

Montana is Grandpa's princess. They loved spending time together going for walks in the park or quietly sitting on the porch reading her favorite book. When grandpa becomes sick, and doesn't come home from the hospital, Montana's mom tries to help her understand why. A sweet and gentle way to look at death, for children ten and under. If your family has had to make this hard journey, this book could help.

<http://myBook.to/GrandpaMoon>