

Parenting & Grandparenting

Beverly Mann Lessard

Every time a baby arrives, Parents and Grandparents are born. As their new lives begin, adventures and stories abound. Written by a mother of three and grandmother of nine, is a collection of true life stories guaranteed to bring smiles, laughs and heart tugging tears. This book is a celebration of all the experiences we share whether this is your first baby or your first baby's baby. When the stork arrives, she brings not just a new life but the continuation of another generation for all of us to love and enjoy. Let the fun begin!
