

SO YOU WANT TO BE A MARINE?

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY BY GARY WINSTEAD

What life was really like in the Green Machine. The Recruiter forgot to tell you what? Living a life of poverty and desperation I took a chance and did what so many of my peers did: joined the Marines just as Vietnam was heating up. I fully expected to make a career of the Marines but was soon faced with unbelievable sadism, arrogance, incompetence and outright brutality...

<http://mybook.to/marine>