

By W. H. Matlack
Illustrated by Don Ramie

Grandma explains the Rain

It's raining, and there's nothing to do! Grandma has heard that before, but she knows the world is full of special wonders when it rains. She remembers what it was like when she was a child. Her grandkids want to hear all about what a rainy day was like when Grandma was their age.

<http://myBook.to/grandmaexplains>